

	Presentation	Work in progress	Workshop	Roundtable
Length of session	15-20 min presentation and 10-15 min discussion	10 min presentation and joint discussion with other "work in progress"	60 min	60 min (with introduction of max 5 min)
What we want your abstract to include
Words in abstract	1500-2000	500	500	500
Relevance	The contribution is relevant, timely and interesting for the conference
Aim and problems	The question or problem is formulated and the contribution is reasonably contextualized
Connection	The contribution relates to relevant research literature and /or proven experience	The contribution is put into context, for example with relevant proven experience
Audience/ Interaction	The contribution describes and addresses its primary audience clearly and the text is well adjusted to this audience.	The contribution describes and addresses its primary audience clearly	The contribution describes the objective of the workshop and the intended audience clearly. The description shows the structure of the workshop and the interaction in the activities.	The contribution describes the primary audience clearly
Method and findings	The contribution explicitly describes how the problem has been approached including the use of appropriate methods. Results and data are accounted for in a way that is relevant to the research question or problem		The contribution describes how the discussion is documented and how the results is made accessible to the participants (where relevant).
Discussion/ Reflection	The contribution contains discussion and reflection relative the argument, the data, and the conclusion. relative the question or problem formulation.
Communication	The content is well communicated and argued for. It is audience-adapted for accessibility in terms of language as well as structure. The contribution applies the recommended style for reference by APA, http://guides.lib.chalmers.se/APA_guide or IEEE, http://guides.lib.chalmers.se/IEEE_guide	The content is argued for and communicated in an accessible way both in terms of language and structure.

